

Clearcreek Police Department

Monthly Report

October 2022

Above and BEYOND

The Clearcreek Police Department humbly thanks the people of our country, community, and department for their service.

The following veterans honor us with their continued commitment to our community through their service in Clearcreek Police Department:

Officer Jason Schrage, U.S. Marine Corps

Officer Daron Williams, U.S. Army

Tip of the HAT

Thank you to Police Clerk Savannah Highley for coordinating the Officer visits to special needs children on Halloween. We appreciate your work.

Excellence via TRAINING

Lieutenant Wallace Stacy and Clerk Savannah Highley completed LEADS TAC In-Service training.

Corporal Kevin Knobbe completed Command Leadership Institute through FBI-LEEDA.

All officers attended annual In-Service training on Less-Lethal options and Use of Force Training.

Police Officer Daron Williams completed Forced Entry Instructor Course through Alexander Global Strategies, Inc.

Engaging our COMMUNITY

On 10/31/22, Officers participated in Trick or Treat Night throughout our neighborhoods, handing out treats to our costumed kids. Additionally, officers scheduled stops to visit children with special needs to include everyone in on the fun.
