

CLEARCREEK FIRE DISTRICT

Monthly Report

September 2022

Above and BEYOND

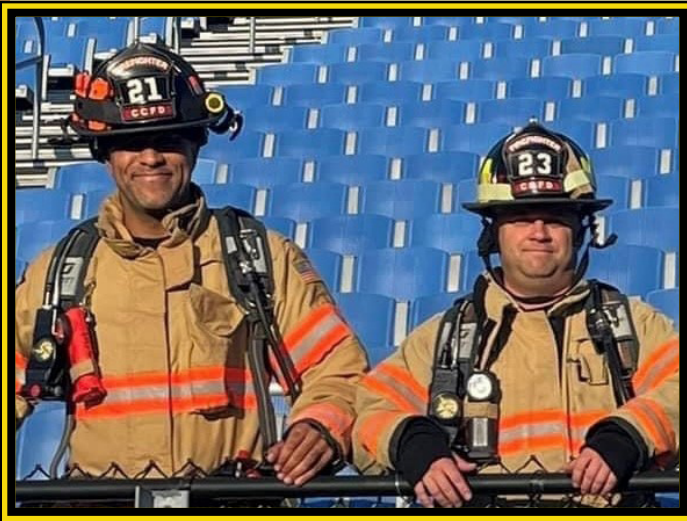

Tip of the HELMET

On 9/11/22, Firefighter/Paramedic Justin Biel and Firefighter/Paramedic Eric Moncrief participated in the Second Annual 9/11 Stair Climb at Miamisburg High School. Eric and Justin joined over 500 students, Miami Valley Fire District and other local fire agencies, police officers, and members of the U.S. Armed Forces to pay tribute to the lives lost during the 9/11 attack. Each participant carried the name of a victim on a piece of paper, reciting the person's name and ringing a bell at the end of the stair climb. Thank you, Justin and Eric, for representing Clearcreek Fire District.

Congratulations to Aaron and Lauren Kidd on the birth of their daughter Emma Rose, born on 9/24/22. Mom and baby are both doing well. Welcome to the family, Emma Rose!

The Mofield family thanks Firefighter/Paramedic Whitney and Firefighter/EMT Maurer for their care and compassion while providing assistance to a family member.

Meet your RESCUER

Meet Lieutenant David Gerspacher, who joined our family in 1999. David is an Honor Graduate of The Ohio Fire Academy, where he earned his Fire Certifications. In addition, he earned his EMS Certifications and an Associate Degree in EMS and Fire Administration from Sinclair Community College. Additionally, he holds Fire Officer I, Fire Officer II, Fire Inspector, and Haz-Mat Technician certifications.

David lives in Bellbrook and has two sons, Kyle and Michael, one daughter, Brittany, and one granddaughter, Claire. He enjoys spending his free time hiking, fishing, and motorcycle riding.
